Meredith in a world of change

SGA President

Suzanne Wright
... instigator of change,
advocate of progress,
mediator between forces

In our generation there is one constant thing — change. Meredith is constantly touched by things outside the hallowed gates on Hillsborough Street. Consequently, the Meredith girl is forever changing and increasing her knowledge and understanding of world affairs.

Sometimes things happen that seem to crush the image she has formulated of the "wonderful world we live in." In June 1968, Robert Francis Kennedy was assassinated in Los Angeles only moments after proclaiming his victory in the California Democratic Presidential Primary. The Meredith girl feels sorrow over this loss of a promising young leader with whom she has more or less grown up. Perhaps she can use the knowledge she is gaining at Meredith to further the causes for which this man died. With the Russian occupation of Czechoslovakia in August, Meredith feels a need to intensify the dorm and Beehive discussions on world situations.

Prior to November 5, 1968 many dormitory doors proudly wore picture-posters of Hubert Humphrey and Bob Scott, or Richard Nixon and Jim Gardner. Even a few boasted of George Wallace, the independent candidate for President. For the first time some Meredith girls cast a vote, and sat glued to the T V to watch Richard Nixon squeak by to become the 37th President of the United States, and Bob Scott take over the N. C. Governor's post.

Even as the Apollo 8 astronauts were orbiting and photographing the moon, Meredith and America rejoiced to learn that the prisoners of the U. S. Intelligence ship Pueblo were released by the Koreans and sent home to their anxious families. By the first of the new year, the Meredith girl was checking the weather report in Havana before boarding an airplane — the fad seemed to be hijacking planes to Cuba.

On the Meredith front bells ring continuously as the new telephones in the dorm rooms are put to good use. A new rowboat appears in the lake to the delight of the Meredith girls and NCSU boys. The horizon is enhanced by the beautiful new Carlisle Campbell Library which is stacked with books by the Meredith Community in a mass "book-in" prior to the informal opening on February 10. A new dorm is under construction as the Meredith girl wonders if she will get to room there next year. Other new things which intrigue and excite her are movies on campus, extended radius, no signing-out on dorm cards during the day, and most of all, no Saturday classes. Dean Fleming and her staff announce that the 10-mile radius will now be 15, that if going to town during the day signing-out may be eliminated, and that home-only cards may be used during the week. These announcements are heard amidst cheers and screams of delight from the Meredith Community. Even louder cheers are heard on Friday nights because the Meredith girl may now sleep later on Saturday morning, thanks to the faculty and administration. "Becket," "Cleopatra," "Goodbye Charlie," and "The Adventures of a Young Man" appear on the Jones Auditorium movie screen as the Concert and Lectures Committee initiates its "Flick '68" program — one that will surely be continued.

Space movies "2001: A Space Odyssey" and "Planet of the Apes" come across effectively on the screen, but the Meredith girl remembers "Camelot" and "The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter" as the big box office hits. And she will never forget crowding around the new color TVs in each dorm to watch Rowan and Martin's "Laugh-In."

The musical Meredith girl and her non-musical roommate both remember Richard Harris' "MacArthur Park" as the big single hit, but they wonder still who left the cake out in the rain. Glen Campbell's "Wichita Lineman" and Archie Bell and the Drells' "Showdown" also hold top positions on the list.

The Psychedelic craze is still clamped tightly on the world, and Meredith exhibits evidence of it. Posters, music, colors, clothes and language are just a tinge of Psychedelia USA. Turtleneck sweaters, shirts, dresses and T-shirts appear alongside mini-skirts, midi-skirts, maxi-skirts and bell-bottoms. Professors fascinate the Meredith girls by sporting long sideburns and mustaches. All in all, Meredith and the world are changing rapidly — improvement — advancement — progress — beauty. For many things, 1968-1969 has provided a beginning.

The SAB was very chic
In sponsoring events Orientation Week,
And then we took on wealth and fame
When we presented the "Dating Game."
Concerts and Lectures were the very best,
As anyone will surely attest.
Plans were all made for Libr'y Fund and May Day,
But the fun really came at our "Carnival Play Day."
We tried, but as usual, our "mixers" with State
Were just a little bit less than great.
The chapel programs on manners and such Helped us to achieve the "dignified touch."
Parents' Weekend brought us praise and cheers
We and the campus have improved with the years.
Our meetings were fun-filled; our work done at last.
It's strange how quickly this year has now passed.

In grey squirrels
once foolish-gay,
having purpose now
in their business.
In a heart,
once cold —
beating warmth

Letters to the Editor

A PLEA FOR LIBERALISM

Dear Associate Editor:

Thank heaven for a TWIG with something in it worth arguing about. You're doing a good job. This time I take issue with your arguments that the apartment-rule ought not to be liberalized for freshmen and sophomores because 1) there is a "fundamental distinction" between these and the upper classes in ability to assume responsibility for social behavior and 2) juniors and to care about student's social regulations. In the last seven issues under our editorship, there has been no other faculty member to write a letter to the editor, although we have had criticisms, constructive and otherwise. This lack of faculty response can perhaps be blamed on the non-controversial content of our editorials, although Dr. Parramore always finds something to challenge. The TWIG can not function well with merely a dialogue between Dr. Parramore and the editors.

Although we appreciate Dr. Parramore's last reply to the apartment rule human rights of any person does mean the dignity of the individual involved. We must recognize that mankind belongs to one family under God and that this brings with it the responsibility to respect and to help one another in every way.

MCA PLANS MIRACLES

BY ALICE SMITH
President of MCA

"The Miracle of Dialogue" — What is "dialogue"? How do we have it? Why do we want it? Is it worth the bother? These were a few of the questions raised on the recent MCA retreat, September 7-10, at Lake Norman. The MCA theme for the year was taken from Reuel Howe's book The Miracle of Dialogue which explains the importance of real one-to-one communication for living together productively and creatively.

SAB WANTS "MORE"

BY BET GARRETT
Chairman of SAB

Want to get the "inside story" on mixers at N. C. State?

Want to see a certain improvement made in dorm facilities or cafeteria services?

Want to suggest something new for May Day, Play Day, Concerts and Lectures, or social standards programs?

If the answer to any one or all of the above questions is "yes," then come to a meeting of the Student Activities Board.

Oak Leaves

Assembling a yearbook is an awesome task. The book at best can reflect the experiences and attitudes of a college year. To most people it is merely a picture book, a collection of faces that is given a brief perusal and then relegated to the shelf.

A yearbook should be an accurate account of the history made by a student body in a year. This is what we have attempted to do with the 1969 Oak Leaves. Ideally it depicts the action of the year, not just people with potential to act. There have been obvious difficulties and handicaps in attempting to catch people in actual situations rather than posed facsimiles. We think it has been worth the effort.

The endless hours of lay-out, typing, photography, and writing are no longer important now that the finished product is in your hands. The important thing now is you, the reader. You were the vitality that inspired the book, and the book will live if you are pleased with it. Thank you for the opportunity to publish an idea. We hope you enjoy it.

ACADEMICS

DEDICATION

Four years ago the class of 1969 entered the doors of Meredith College. Included in it were various faculty and staff members just as unsure, with just as many adjustments to make. The freshman class of students held a special affinity with them, with one in particular. One similar in size and background to the others — a petite young lady from Virginia was nothing extraordinary in a freshman class. She, like the rest had been chosen for her peculiar abilities and potential. The students recognized in her easy smile and quiet, unassuming manner a friend in whom they could confide. She has lent a willing ear to many a problem in four years, and stuck her neck out for someone on more than one occasion. Just as the Class of '69 has grown to take more responsibilities, so has this particular member in assuming the role of Dean of Summer School. With a special feeling for the senior class, she made available to us job placement booklets and occupational interests tests. For Christmas she entertained us with a coffee hour. We have no authority to grant you a diploma, but we do dedicate this 1969 Oak Leaves to you, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones.

Seniors look down with new perspective

we view from the top at last with apprehension and triumph days are spent more in binding friendship less in perusing books intentions are declared for life
not just major fields
eager to be a part of the world
while grateful for time to prepare for it taking what Meredith has offered confident we've given something in return

Another chance, another love, another time for having fun.
A little bit older, a whole lot wiser,
but still a lot to learn.
Rock out, juke out, but in on everything.
Work together, plan together, accept
the outcome together.
Fond dreams, fond companions, and fond memories . . .

We're the Sophomore Class and we're unsurpassed.

Freshmen begin climb

Orientation week brought us to Meredith as a group of strangers. Throughout that week, though, and all the ones that followed, we made new friends and shared old ones. Corn Huskin' and Stunt unified us as a class and we showed Meredith what the Freshmen could do. Happy and sad events followed — D and F slips — a good blind date — call downs for dorm card mistakes — an "A" on a slaved-over term paper. There were other experiences, too; they are recorded in our hearts, and make us proud of Meredith and ready to move on — to learn.

THREE FINE STORES IN RALEIGH

For Pennies,

you can really turn it on . . . and keep it on.

Penny shaves, penny shoe shines. Electricity makes it all possible.

With a penny's worth of electricity, you can shave every day for a year.

Or toast 40 slices of bread.

Or listen to a radio an hour a day for a week.

Fact is, today you can get about twice as much electricity for your dollar as people did 30 years ago.

Your electric bill probably isn't just pennies — but then think of all the lights you use, toast you make and TV you watch (not to mention clothes you wash, rugs you vacuum and teeth you brush.)

Electricity.

It's a real value, no matter how much you use or how you use it.

Every hundred years or so it becomes necessary
for a change to take place . . .
the movement is carried on by weak and worthless imitators . . .

Dame Edith Sitwell

I have trod the upward and the downward slope . . .

I have endured and done
In days before;

I have longed for all,
and bid farewell to hope;

And I have lived and loved and closed the door.

Robert Louis Stevenson
